

Name Date

Teacher's Pup September 21, 2018

Use this week's issue of TIME for Kids (Edition 3–4) to answer the questions. For each question, circle the letter next to the best answer.

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

1. Who is Brody?

- A. a pet belonging to the principal at Shell Bank junior high school
- B. Abby Walker's dog
- C. a student at Shell Bank junior high
- D. director of the Mutt-i-grees program

RI.3.2; RI.4.2

2. How are dogs and humans similar?

- A. Dogs and humans inspire each other.
- B. Dogs like to be near humans.
- C. Both go to school.
- D. Dogs and humans both express emotion in body language.

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

3. What skill does Desi help students learn?

- A. Desi helps students meet new people.
- B. Desi teaches students to look at the body language of a dog to understand how it is feeling.
- C. Desi helps students build compassion for others.
- D. Desi teaches children to read.

RI.3.4; RI.4.4

4. Define the word empathy.

- A. a love for animals
- B. understanding how others feel
- C. feeling bad for other people
- D. talking about one's feelings

RI.3.5; RI.4.5

5. What new information is presented in the sidebar?

- A. facts about where the dogs in the story came from
- B. facts on dog adoptions only
- C. facts about shelter animals
- D. information about how to adopt from a shelter

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

6. What did Shell Bank junior high school raise money for?

- A. food for shelter animals
- B. food for the dogs at their school
- C. to adopt a dog from a local shelter
- D. to raise awareness about adopting shelter animals

RI.3.7; RI.4.7

7. What does the caption title "Lessons on a Leash" mean?

- A. Students learn to leash a dog.
- B. The dogs are on leashes.
- C. Students are learning from dogs.
- D. The students are on leashes.

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

8. How many dogs are adopted from a shelter per year?

- A. 1 million
- B. 1½ million
- C. 3 million
- D. 6½ million

RI.3.1; RI.4.1

9. Which statement is true about Mutt-i-grees?

- A. The Mutt-i-grees program trains students to look at a dog's body language.
- B. There are 400 schools, libraries, and community centers using the curriculum.
- C. The Mutt-i-grees program trains dogs to look at a student's body language.
- D. Shell Bank junior high school raised $1500 for a shelter.

RI.3.7; RI.4.7

10. How do the photographs used contribute to the main idea?

- A. They show how shelter dogs are unapproachable.
- B. They show Shell Bank students with dogs.
- C. They show that the children are comfortable with the dogs.
- D. They show students with their pets.